Switched On TV
WITH CAMERON ADAMS

THE PROJECT
CHANNEL 10, 6.30PM
KYLIE Minogue is in the house! Kylie will co-host for half an hour tonight as she joins the panel of Waleed Aly, Gorgi Coghlan, Pete Helliar and Steve Price. Indeed, this could be the first time Price is taller than one of their in-studio guests. Or maybe not. It will be interesting to see Minogue away from TV reality mode or chat show mode. Other guests include Grand Prix driver Daniel Ricciardo.

CHANNEL 31, 7.30PM
THIS is a great new series with new local talent Jade New at the helm. As well as being a fine singer, she showcases her hosting skills here. As you would imagine from the title, it lets musicians talk about their craft. Tonight it's pianist Joe Chindamo. Unlike many hosts, New is familiar with her subjects, which means the chats aren't just plugging some product, but move into more passionate, informative territory.

NRL: MELBOURNE STORM V DRAGONS

FOX SPORTS 1, 6.30PM
HERE you go Melbourne Storm fans, your first game for the NRL 2015 season. It's an away game, so this is the only place you can see it live. This is a milestone game for unring Storm hero Ryan Hinchcliffe (above), who plays his 150th game for the club but doesn't get the attention Cameron Smith, Billy Slater or Cooper Cronk get. Yet he is crucial to the team's trademark power tackling.

MONDAY NIGHT WITH MATTY JOHNS

FOX SPORTS 1, 8.50PM
MATTY is back with a look at the first NRL round.

GIRLS SHOWCASE, 7.30PM

ONLY three episodes left in this series. As usual there are the regular people complaining that Girls has lost its way. But there has been some really strong storylines this year. There was the Hannah and Adam split, now there seems to be a chance they may reunite. But there is also a possible new love interest for Hannah, as well as budding
